Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2017

(1) Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Organization

FTI Capital Advisors, LLC (the Company), a Maryland limited liability company, acts as a financial advisor and an investment bank for private and public companies. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of FTI Consulting, Inc. (FTI Consulting). FTI Consulting is a leading global business advisory firm dedicated to helping organizations protect and enhance their enterprise value. FTI Consulting operates through five reportable segments: Corporate Finance & Restructuring, Forensic and Litigation Consulting, Economic Consulting, Technology, and Strategic Communications. The Company obtains all of its management and administrative services from FTI Consulting pursuant to a management service agreement (Note 2). Further, FTI Consulting provides financial support in the form of member equity contributions, when needed, to allow the Company to maintain compliance with regulatory net capital requirements and working capital to allow the Company to fund its operations. FTI Consulting intends to continue to support the operations of the Company. In the absence of this significant direct support, the Company would be required to seek alternative funding, which may not be available or may need to curtail its operations. The Company will exist for an indefinite life unless terminated sooner in accordance with its membership agreement.

The Company is registered as a broker/dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member firm of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company does not engage in security trading activities, nor does the Company hold customer funds in its business activities. The Company is exempt from SEC Rule 15c3-3 pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (k)(2)(i).

(b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(c) Revenue Recognition

The Company derived its revenue from professional advisory services for the year ended December 31, 2017. Revenue generating activities are provided under fixed-fee, success fee, and time and material billing arrangements. Generally, under fixed-fee arrangements, the client agrees to pay a fixed-fee every month over the specified contract term. These contracts are for varying periods and generally permit the client to cancel the contract before the end of the term. The Company recognizes revenues for professional services rendered under these fixed-fee billing arrangements monthly over the specified term or, in certain cases, revenue is recognized on the proportional performance method of accounting based on the ratio of labor hours incurred to estimated total labor hours, which the Company considers the best available indicator of the pattern and timing in which such contract obligations are fulfilled. Revenue for success fee billing arrangements is recorded when all services have been rendered, the provisions of the engagement have been achieved, the fees are fixed and determinable, and collection is reasonably assured. Revenue for time and material billing arrangements is recorded as work is performed and expenses are incurred.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2017

(d) Accounts Receivable and Concentration of Risk

The Company uses estimates to determine the amount of the allowance for doubtful accounts necessary to reduce accounts receivable to their net realizable value. The Company periodically reviews individual customer account balances as well as the status of past-due receivables to determine the appropriate allowance for doubtful accounts. Accounts receivable are not collateralized. The Company charges off receivables deemed uncollectible to the allowance for doubtful accounts. In 2017, the Company had five clients that represented 91% of its annual revenue. The Company had five clients that aggregated 90% of total accounts receivable as of December 31, 2017.

(e) Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company and as such is not subject to federal or state income taxes. Rather, the member is liable for any income taxes on the Company's profits. Therefore, a provision for income taxes is not included in the accompanying statement of operations. If the Company were required to record a provision for income taxes, it would have been $3,400,561.

(f) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

We consider the recorded value of our financial assets and liabilities, which consists primarily of accounts receivable and accounts payable to approximate the fair value of the respective assets and liabilities at December 31, 2017, based on the short-term nature of the assets and liabilities. The due from parent has no set maturity date or stated interest and is owed from a related party (Note 2). The carrying value approximates the fair value.

(g) New Accounting Standard

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). Under this ASU and subsequently issued amendments, revenues are recognized at the time when goods or services are transferred to a customer in an amount that reflects the consideration it expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. Companies may use either a full retrospective or a modified retrospective approach to adopt this ASU. We will adopt this standard using the modified retrospective method effective January 1, 2018.

We generate the majority of our revenues from providing professional services under the following types of billing arrangements: time and expense, fixed fee and performance based. The impact of the ASU adoption for each type of billing arrangement is as follows:

Time and expense - The Company will use the right-to-invoice practical expedient to account for time-and-expense billing arrangements when the Company has a right to consideration from a customer in an amount that corresponds directly with the value of the entity's performance completed to date. This is consistent with the Company's current revenue recognition policy.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2017

Fixed fee - The Company will recognize revenues as individual performance obligations are satisfied using a measure of progress that is based on the efforts or hours incurred as a percentage of total hours expected to be incurred (i.e., an input method measure of progress). This method is consistent with the Company's current revenue recognition policy. However, the definition of a performance obligation under the new standard requires an evaluation of whether or not a good or service to a customer is distinct. This assessment of whether or not a single or multiple performance obligations exists within a contract may lead to a difference in the timing of revenue recognition compared with our current revenue recognition policy.

Performance based or contingent - These arrangements include some form of variable consideration whereby the Company earns revenues if certain predefined outcomes occur in the future. When the related performance obligations are satisfied over time, the Company may recognize revenues in the proportion that the outcome has been earned based on services provided when the Company concludes that collection of the amount recorded is probable, i.e., a significant reversal will not occur in the future. The Company will evaluate probability using either the expected value method or the most likely amount method, as appropriate. Under the new standard, the Company may recognize revenues earlier than it previously did largely relative to certain types of contingent success fees where revenues were recorded upon cash collection.

The Company is in its final stages of quantifying the financial impacts of the new guidance based on the contracts that exist at the date of adoption, as well as evaluating presentation of our revenues and required enhancements to disclosures. We have implemented both process and information systems changes to identify and assess contracts that are impacted by the new revenue recognition criteria and accumulate data to satisfy new disclosure requirements. We expect that the new standard will have an immaterial impact on our financial statements, other than increased disclosures, upon adoption. Changes to revenue recognition as a result of applying the new standard will largely arise from certain contingent or success fee arrangements as described above.

(h) Subsequent Events

Subsequent events have been evaluated through March 1, 2018, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

(2) Related Party Transactions

The Company operates under a management service agreement with FTI Consulting, which continues through December 1, 2018 and shall be automatically renewed for successive one-year terms until terminated by either party upon 30-days' notice. Under the agreement, FTI Consulting provides all management and administrative services required by the Company. Management and administrative services consist principally of furnishing office space, equipment, and supplies, assisting in ensuring the Company's compliance with reporting and other administrative matters imposed by statute, regulations, and associations, facilitating the processing of payroll, insurance, and employee benefit administration, providing legal, financial, marketing, and sales support services, and other administrative services agreed to from time to time by both parties.

Professional services of the Company are provided by employees of FTI Consulting assigned to the Company during their performance under the contract. FTI Consulting charges the Company for the direct costs and related benefits of the employees assigned to the Company. In the current year, there was $7,295,828 charged to the Company, which is included in employee compensation and related benefits on the accompanying statement of income.

Notes to Financial Statements

There is currently one employee of the Company, for which the Company incurred $223,139 for direct costs and related benefits. During 2017, the Company was charged $7,882 for matching contributions to the FTI Consulting 401(k) plan made by FTI Consulting on behalf of the employee assigned to the Company, which is included in employee compensation and related benefits on the accompanying statement of income.

FTI Consulting is responsible for the payment of all of the Company's overhead and operating expenses, with the exception of expenditures for licenses or other fees payable to any governmental agency or industry regulatory group and costs associated with indebtedness of the Company. These operating expenses include salaries and expenses of employees of FTI Consulting assigned to the Company.

Certain allocated expenses such as rent, utilities, and other overhead costs are included in other expenses on the accompanying statement of income. Allocated non-salary employee expenses totaled $78,992 for the year ended December 31, 2017.

Pursuant to the operating agreement, in the event that any expenses allocated to the Company would cause member's equity to diminish below the $15,000, the amount of expenses payable by the Company would be permanently reduced to allow the Company to maintain at least $15,000 of member's equity. All funding provided by FTI Consulting and not reimbursed is accounted for as a contribution to member's equity. No contributions were provided for the year ended December 31, 2017. The Company paid FTI Consulting a $11,000,000 dividend in 2017.

(3) Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. The Company computes its net capital requirements under the alternative method provided for in Rule 15c3-1. Advances to affiliates, repayment of subordinated borrowings, dividend payments, and other equity withdrawals are subject to certain notification and other provisions of the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule or other regulatory bodies.

At December 31, 2017, the Company had net capital of $6,059,885 which was $5,886,076 in excess of the required net capital of $173,809. Net capital is defined as net member's equity less nonallowable assets. Nonallowable assets are generally all assets that are not highly liquid.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Member FTI Capital Advisors, LLC:

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying FTI Capital Advisor's Exemption Report (the Exemption Report); in which (1) FTI Capital Advisors, LLC (the Company) identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3 (k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 (k)(2)(i) (the exemption provisions); and (2) the Company stated that it met the identified exemption provisions throughout the year ended December 31, 2017 without exception. The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
